By JOB ORTON,
Author of the Life of the pious Doct. Daddridge, and several religious Tracts.
The genuine spirit of the Gospel which is revealed throughout this very remarkable performance, is so happily conveyed that every class of mankind, but more particularly of the Aged. Sometimes he fully unfolds the tender of the inspired Apostle to the aged impotent sinner, but he generally breathes forth the healing efficacy and all-piercing of redemptive Love. The following is a short specimen of the style used in aged prayers, written with a beautiful simplicity symmetrical to the character it recommends.
"They are to be considered as being on the very borders of the heavenly world, just rising here and there, to be joined to the spirits of just men made perfect. The day is at hand, when their Warfare shall be accomplished, and their everlasting rest and triumph commence. They race, which they run with patience and perseverance, is just concluded, and they will soon receive the prize. And when we consider that a Christian as on the verge of heaven, and soon to receive the applause of Christ, we cannot but honour him, whatever his outward appearance may be. His graces show brighter through the wrinkles that decorate his countenance, and the trade paths and language which are the harbingers of death, are also the harbingers of glory."

A Meeting of the PEOPLE of Boston, and the neighbouring Towns, at the Old South Meeting-house in Boston, on Tuesday, December 14, 1773, and continued by Adjournment to Thursday 15th of the same Month, occasioned by the pernicious Arts of our restless Enemies, to render ineffectual the late Resolutions of the Body of the People.
Mr. SAMUEL PHILLIPS SAVAGE,
A Gentleman of the Town of Woburn, was chosen Moderator.

A Motion made and passed that Mr. Rotch, Owner of Capt. Hall's Ship, be desired to give his Attendance.
Capt. Bruce, Master of one of the Ships with Tea on board, being present, it was moved that he might be asked, Whether he will demand a Clearance for his Ship of the Custom-House, and if refused, enter his Protest, and then proceed on his voyage to London.—He replied, that when all his Goods were landed, he would demand a Clearance, but if refused, he was loth to stand the shot of thirty-two pounds.

Mr. Rotch appeared, and was required at this point of a Clearance for his ship; and Benjamin Kent, Esq; with the other gentlemen, were appointed to proceed with him to the Collector's.
Mr. Rotch returned and acquainted the Body, that he had, accompanied by the above committee, waited on the Collector and required a clearance for his vessel, as directed; and that the Collector replied, that he chose to see the Comptroller first; and at Ten o'clock the next morning he would be ready to give his answer.
It was then moved that this meeting be adjourned to Thursday next at Ten o'Clock, A. M. and that Mr. Rotch and the committee be desired to wait upon the Collector at the time appointed.—
And the Meeting was accordingly adjourned.

THURSDAY, December 16, Ten o'Clock, A. M.
Met according to Adjournment.

THE Committee to accompany Mr. Rotch to the Collector reported, that Mr. Rotch had made his demand in the following manner, viz.
"I am required and compelled at my peril by a body of people assembled at the old South meeting-house, yesterday, where Mr. Samuel Phillips Savage was President, to make a demand of you to give me a clearance for the ship Dartmouth for London, in the situation she is now in with the tea on board."
Upon which one of the committee observed, that they were present, by order of the body, only as witnesses of the before-mentioned demand and the answer that should be given.

Thereupon Mr. Harrison the collector said to Mr. Rotch (Mr. Hollowell the comptroller being present) "then it is you make the demand?" Mr. Rotch answered, "yes, and am compelled at my peril." Then Mr. Harrison said to Mr. Rotch, "your ship Dartmouth entered with me the 30th of November last with dutiable articles on board, for which the duties have not been paid, I cannot therefore give you a clearance until the is discharged of those articles, consistent with my duty."

Mr. Rotch attending according to order, was informed, that this Body expect that he will immediately protest against the custom-house, and apply to the Governor for his Pass for the Castle, and that his vessel shall this day proceed on her voyage for London.

Mr. Rotch replied to this, that he could not comply with their requirement, because it was unadvisable.
Mr. Rotch was then told, that he had desired this Body, that his vessel should sail within 30 days after her arrival, which term would this day expire, and being asked whether he would order his vessel to sail this day, he replied, that he would not.

The Body desired Mr. Rotch to make all possible dispatch in making a protest and procuring a pass for his vessel, and then adjourn'd till 3 o'clock, P. M.

III. o'clock, P. M. Met according to adjournment.
THE People were informed, that several towns had lately come into measures to prevent the consumption of Tea, which measure it was motioned and Voted, that it is the sense of this Body, that the use of Tea is impolitic and pernicious.

Upon a motion made, Voted, That it is the opinion of this Body, that it would be expedient for every town in this province to appoint committees of inspection, to prevent this detested Tea from coming into any of our towns.

It was moved and the question put, Whether it be the sense and determination of this Body to abide by their former Resolutions with respect to the not suffering the Tea to be landed.—Which passed in the affirmative, Nem. Con.

It being now half past 4 o'clock, many were desirous and even moved that the Meeting should be immediately Dissolved; but some Gentlemen of the County informing the Body that their several Towns were very anxious to have full information as to this matter, that they were quite desirous the Meeting should be continued until 6 o'clock, especially as Mr. Rotch had been met with on his way to Milton for a pass, the motion was accordingly over-ruled.
Mr. Rotch returned before 6 o'clock, & inform'd the Body, that in pursuance of their direction he had waited upon Governor Hutchinson, and demanded of him a Pass for his sailing by the Castle, and received for answer, "That he was willing to grant any thing consistent with the laws and his duty to the King, but that he could not give a Pass unless the Vessel was properly qualified from the Custom-House; but that he should make no distinction between this and any other Vessels, provided they was properly cleared."—He further acquainted the Body, that his Protest against the Custom-House not being finished in season, he could not enter the same with him, but declared, that he had informed the Governor of the steps he had and was taking as to a Protest.

Mr. Rotch was then asked, Whether he would send his Vessel back with the Tea in her under her present circumstances? who answered that he could not possibly comply, as he apprehended a compliance would prove his ruin.—He was further asked, Whether it was his intention to land the Tea? He replied, that he had no business to do it unless he was called upon by the proper Persons, in which case he should attempt to land it for his own safety.

The Body having manifested an exemplary patience and civility in the methods it had pursued to prevent the Tea, the property of the East India Company, without its being made fatal among us, which much have been fatal to the Common-welfare, and to restore it safe & unobscured to its Proprietors, and perceiving that in every step they have taken towards this just & salutary purpose, they have been counter-worked by the Confignees of the Tea, and their Coadjutors, who have plainly manifested their inclination of throwing the Community into the most violent commotions, rather than relinquish and give up the profits of a commission or contract, and the advantages they have imagined from the establishment of an American revenue; and no one being able to point out any thing further that it was in the power of this Body to do, for the salutary purpose aforesaid, —It was moved and Voted, that this Meeting be immediately Dissolved—and it was accordingly.

Messrs. PRINTERS,
HAVING accidentally arrived at Boston upon a visit to a Friend, the Evening before the Meeting of the Body of the People on the 29th of November, curiosity and the pressing invitation of my most kind host induced me to attend the Meeting; I must confess I was most agreeably, and I hope I shall be forgiven by this People if I say so unexpectedly entertained and instructed by the regular, reasonable and sensible conduct and expression of the People there collected, that I should rather have entertained an idea of being transported to the British fleet than to an advertisement and promiscuous assembly of People of a remote Colony. I was not convinced by the genuine uncorrupted integrity and manly hardihood of the Rhetoricians of that assembly, that they were not yet corrupted by venality or debauched by luxury.

—The conduct of that wise and considerate body in their several transactions, evidently tended to preserve the property of the East India Company; I must confess I was very disagreeably affected with the conduct of Mr. Hutchinson, their pensioned Governor, on the succeeding day, who very unseasonably, and as I am informed, very arbitrarily (not having the sanction of law) framed and executed a mandate to disperse the People, which in my opinion, with a people less prudent and temperate, would have cost him his head: The force of that body was directed to effect the return of the Tea to Great-Britain; much argument was expended, much entreaty was made use of to effect this desirable purpose.—Mr. Rotch behaved in my estimation very unexceptionably; his disposition was seemingly to comport with the desires of the People to convey the Tea to the original proprietors.—The Confignees have behaved like Scoundrels in refusing to take the consignment, or indemnify the owner of the ship which conveyed this detestable commodity to this port; every possible step was taken to preserve this property; the people being exasperated with the conduct of administration in this affair, great pains were taken, and much policy exerted to procure a flatted watch for this purpose.—The body of the People determined the Tea should not be landed; the determination was deliberate, was judicious; and the sacrifice of their Rights, of the Union of all the Colonies, would have been the effect had they continued with less resolution: On the Committee of Correspondence they devoted their care of affixing their resolutions, seasonably executed; that body I have been informed by one of their members, had taken every step prudence and patriotism could suggest, to effect the desirable purpose, but were defeated.—The Body once more assembled, I was again present; such a collection of the people was to me a novelty; near seven thousand persons from several towns, Gentlemen, Merchants, Yeomen and others, respectable for their rank and abilities, and venerable for their age and character, constituted the assembly; they decently, unanimously and firmly adhered to their former resolution, that the baleful commodity which was to rivet and establish the duty should never be landed; to prevent the mischief, they repeated the duties of the Commune of the Towns; the owner of the ship should apply for a clearance; it appeared that Mr. Rotch had been managed and was still under the influence of the opposite party; he refused the request of the people to apply for a clearance for his ship with an obituary which in my opinion bordered on sabbotisms.—He refused at length by the peremptory demand of the Body, he consented to apply, a committee of ten respectable gentlemen were appointed to attend him to the collector: The succeeding morning the application was made and a clearance refused with all the insolence of office; the Body meeting the same morning by adjournment, Mr. Rotch was directed to protest in form, and then apply to the Governor for a Pass by the castle; Mr. Rotch executed his commission with fidelity, but a pass could not be obtained, his Excellency excusing himself in his refusal that he could not make the precedent granted on sabbotisms.—The clearance was obtained; and when it was indeed a fallacy, as it had been usual with him in ordinary cases.—Mr. Rotch returning on the evening reported as above; it was then voted his conduct to be satisfactory, and a recommendation of order and regularity to the People, dissolved. Previous to the dissolution, a number of Persons, supposed to be the Aboriginal Natives from their complexion, approaching near the door of the assembly, gave the War-Whop, which was answered by a few in the galleries of the house where the assembly was convened; silence was commanded, and a prudent and peaceable department again enjoined. The Savages repaired to the ships which entertained the sabbotical Teas, and had begun their savage previous to the dissolution of the meeting—they applied themselves to the destruction of this commodity in earnest, and in the space of about two hours broke up 342 casks and discharged their contents into the sea. A watch as I am informed was stationed to prevent embezzlement, and not a single ounce of Tea was suffered to be polluted by the populace: One or two persons being detected in endeavouring to pocket a small quantity were stripped of their acquisitions and very roughly handled.—It is worthy to remark that although a considerable quantity of goods of different kinds were still remaining on board the vessels, no injury was sustained; such attention to private property was observed that a small padlock belonging to the Captain of one of the Ships being broke, another was procured and sent to him.—I cannot but express my admiration at the conduct of this People I Uninfluenced by party or any other attachment, I presume I shall not be suspected of misrepresentation. The East India Company have suffered themselves with this reflection, that if they have followed the prejudice they sustain does not arise from enmity to them; a fatal necessity has rendered this catastrophe inevitable—the landing the tea would have been fatal; as it would have filled the colonies with a duty imposed without their consent, & which no power on earth can effect. Their strength and numbers, spirit and illumination render the experiment dangerous, the defeat certain: The Confignees must attribute to themselves the loss of the property of the East-India Company; had they seasonably quieted the minds of the people by a resignation, all had been well; the custom-house, and the man who disgraces Majesty by representing him, acting in confederacy with the inveterate enemies of America, stupidly opposed every measure concerted to return the Teas.—That American virtue may defeat every attempt to enslave them, is the warmest wish of my heart. I shall return home doubly fortified in my resolution to prevent that deplorable calamity, the landing the teas in Rhode-Island, and console myself with the happiest assurances that my brethren have not less virtue; less resolution than their neighbours.

AN IMPARTIAL OBSERVER.

BOSTON, December 20, 1773.
Last Week the Towns of Plymouth, Medford, and Lunenburg, respectively held Town-Meetings to take into Consideration the circumstances of our public Affairs, and in particular the East-India Company's Importing Tea, and the manner in which they have done it, and have by a great number of special Resolves relative to it, and by a very large meeting with the Town of Boston, and their determination to assist in carrying them into Execution, at the hazard of their Lives and Fortunes, and in consequence of the above Resolutions, it is thought that Thursday day had a legal Town-Meeting here, in order to, "consult on some effectual Measure to prevent the Sale of the East India Company's detested Tea, which they have shipped, purposely to prevent a general Meeting of the several Colonies, and to withhold in a clandestine Revenue for the Maintenance of Pensioners, Place-Men, and Ministerial Dependents, who like Vultures are preying upon the Birth-Strings of their Fellow Subjects."—And we are told that the resolutions of the said Towns were, "That the Town of Boston doth hereby declare, that the East-India Company's Privileges, and Liberties of America, at that Meeting, were such, as will manifest to the World that are not backward to unite with their Brethren of the other Provinces to oppose the Cause of our Liberties, which is the Cause of America."
We learn from Philadelphia, that Capt. Ayres, in a Ship chartered by the East India Company, to bring the Tea to this Place, has arrived at the Cape of Delaware (Mr. Chertier's Tavern), one of the Confignees, being present, and that he has refused to receive the Tea (the River) and Letters being sent to the Captain and Confignee, requesting their Refusal, respectively each of them, that if they preferred to come to Boston, it would be at their Peril, and the inevitable Danger of both their Lives and Fortunes. In consequence of this intelligence, we find they had gone off, whether to the Place from whence they came, or to some other Port, was uncertain; it is thought they were departed, in that they would not be permitted to land the Tea to any Part of this Province.

By THOMAS PRINCE, A. M. Late Pastor of the Old South Church in this Town.

We hear that Capt. Loring, in a Brig, (who is the fourth, and at present the only expected Vessel with the remainder of the East India Company's Tea on board designed for this Port) was capt. Altho's on Cape Cod last Friday evening! The People and mate of the Cargo, it is said, will be saved.

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia. "As for News, there is none excepted that the same publick Odium against the East-India Company's shipping Tea to America, which prevails to the Northward, is here carried on with more animated and universal Detestation.—The Ship is hourly expected, and I hope will arrive while I am here, that I may be a Spectator of their Proceedings; and if it appears to be their fixed determination not to suffer it to be lanted; or, if it should secretly reach the Shore, to commit it to the Flames wherever it may be found.—How far these Measures will be carried into Execution, Time must unfold; but if any Judgment can be formed by the Manners of this People, their Resolution will be redoubt and unshaken."

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia, dated Dec. 11, 1793. "Your Resolution of the 29th ult. was publicly read at our Coffee House last Thursday, to a large Company of our first Merchants, who gave three Cheers by way of Approbation."

By Letters from London, in the last Ship, it is said, Advice received, that the Captain of the Brigantine, which was sent His Excellency Governor Westons, to New-Hampshire, was finally acquitted by the King and Council, and the Governor honorably dismissed, the 8th of October last.

On the 16th of November, Capt. James Cuspy, being in a Schooner, bound from Boston to the West-Indies, is put into St. Kitts, to refit, having lost his Main-mast in a violent Gale of Wind the 7th of October last. And a Brig belonging to Newbury-Port, having also lost her Mast, is put into St. Kitts. Governor Knollys, of New-Jersey, has granted a Pardon for Joseph, of Dearborn, who is charged with being concerned in Goal as Accessories with Faw, Reynolds, &c. In counterfeiting several Sorts of Money, as lately mentioned in the Papers.

Monday-Eve, December 15, 1793. On Friday the 10th Instant the Remains of Rev. Christopher Bridge Marsh, Esq. 30, Pastor of the North Congregational Church in this Town.—He was of a studious and contemplative turn of Mind from his Childhood.—was admitted a Member of Harvard College in the year 1749. He was called to the office of Bachelor of Arts in 1754.—He officiated about 4 Years as Chaplain at Castle-William, where his Ministry was apparently blessed to the spiritual Good of a Number whose Reformation was visible while he resided there.—He was afterwards called to the charge of the unanimous Desire of the Church and Congregation. He was richly furnished with manifold Gifts and Accomplishments: He had a penetrating Mind, ready Invention, and a full Judgment. He thought justly and reason'd correctly. He had not only a peculiar Taste for Letters, but was great and gifted in Prayer. The great Doctrines of the Gospel were the chief Subject he dwelt on in his publick Discourses: He came into his Subject with Ease and Readiness: His Language was plain, yet lively, striking and expressive. He was remarkably free from Objection, and his Conduct was such as plainly evinced that he strove to recommend, not himself, but the Truth, for the Honor of the God and the Salvation of Souls: His whole Deportment in the Pulpit was grave and solemn. In a Word, his Preaching was calculated, both as to Matter and Manner, to enlighten the Mind, awaken the Conscience, excite the Heart, and lead the Hearer into a Knowledge of themselves and the Way of Salvation by Faith in Jesus Christ; and that he was influenced by the Holy Spirit in all his Discourses.—He was distinguished above his Countrymen by the Duties which he urged upon them, His People lay very near his Heart, for whom he entertained a very affectionate Regard, mix'd with a tender Concern for their temporal as well as eternal Welfare.—He was so afflicted about March last, and died on the 10th of the same Month; and for most of the Time too weak to admit much Ministry: His Mind was considerably impaired for some time in his Sickness, but for a few Days before his Death God was plain with the free Use of his Reason; and notwithstanding his great Age, he manifested great Firmness and Calmness. He was so far from discovering a Dread of Death, that on the other hand, he express'd a cheerful Resignation to the Will of God, a Peace and Satisfaction in the Prospect of his approaching Dissolution.—Very few who have lived in so publick a Character have conducted so worthily, or with such amiable Simplicity & really Sincerity.—By his Death his Flock has lost an excellent Pastor, his Father a dutiful Son, the neighbouring parishes a most affectionate Brother, and the Community a useful Member.

DIED Mrs. Kilcup, Wife of Mr. George Kilcup. Died at Marshfield, Mrs. Anna Malcolm, Widow, aged 52.

At Beverly, Mr. Samuel Edinley, some time since a noted Barber.

Dead, at Portsmouth, Samuel Griffith, Esq. aged 44 Years.—

A Number of Articles of Foreign & Domestic Intelligence, new Advancements, &c.—will be omitted this Week, for Want of Room.

NOTIFICATION.

At a Meeting of some of the principal Vendors of TEAS in Boston, on Friday the 17th Instant, for consulting and determining on suitable Measures to be adopted, to be executed with a great number of respectable Inhabitants of this Province, express'd by a Vote of their late Assembly to suppress the Use of the said Tea; it is more fully to execute this Purpose, it is agreed that a general Meeting should be convened on Tuesday the 21st Instant, at 5 o'Clock P. M. at the Royal Exchange Tavern in Kingstreet; where it is desired and expected that all the Dealers in, and Vendors of Tea will punctually attend.— December 18, 1773.
