Cambridge, April 26, 1775. In Committee of Safety.
DOCTOR Nathaniel Bond, of Marblehead, having been charged before this Committee with having acted an unbecomingly part to this Colony; said Committee appointed Joseph Warren, Esq; Col. Thomas Gardner, and Lieut. Col. Joseph Palmer, as a Court of Enquiry to examine Witnesses in the Case, and hear and determine the same: And upon full Enquiry into the Case, they are clearly of Opinion, that said Bond's general Behaviour, has been fitly to American Liberty; and though he may have discovered an imprudent Degree of Warmth in some Instances; yet we do not find any Proof of an intemperate Temper or Disposition to this Country, and therefore recommend him to the Esteem and Friendship of his Country, that (as the Error which occasioned his being brought before this Committee, appears to have been altogether involuntary, and was such as several of our most firm Friends were led into by false Rumours spread of the Transactions of the 19th Instant) no Impressions to the Doctor's Disadvantage may remain on the Minds of any Person whatever.
JOSEPH WARREN, Chairman.

THIS may certify, That about two Years ago Mr. JOHN PIEMONT came to dwell in the Town of Danvers, and was well recommended by the Selectmen of the Town of Boston; and though some Persons have called him a Tory, to his great Damage, yet we, as a Committee of Inspection for the Town of Danvers, have carefully examined into his Piemont's Character, and are fully satisfied that he is a Friend to us in the common Cause of our Country, and we hope all our Friends will treat him as such, and call upon him for Entertainment, as he keeps a large publick House in said Danvers.
