WANTS EMPLOY.

A YOUNG MAN (who is single) as OVERSEER on a FARM, has been brought up to the said business all his life, and is now about 30 years of Age, very healthy, would engage with any Gentleman, or Lady, on reasonable Terms, that may have Occasion for such a Person; he understands taking Care of Horses, breeding Sheep and Cattle in general, can produce a good Character; any Line directed to S. H. at the PRINTERS herof shall be duly attended to.

R UN away from the subscriber, living in Well-Nottingham, Chester county, on the 26th of June last, an fifth servant man, name John Harris, supposed to be about 20 years of age, hair, is a little in-mouthered, marked pretty much with the dew, of home made lightish coloured cloth, with cuffs to the sleeves, and pretty much holes about the sleeves, and a flannel waistcoat, old shirt and trousers, a black leather apron, an old hat, good shoes, with strings in them. Whoever takes up said servant, and secures him in any of his Majesty's goals, so that his master may get him again, shall have Four Dollars reward, and if brought home seven, and reasonable charges, paid by JOHN ENGLAND.

CHARLESTOWN (South-Carolina) June 6. A SOCIETY.

Unanimously agreed to in the Provincial Congress of South-Carolina, the 10th of June, 1775.

THE actual Commencement of Hostilities against this Continent, by the British troops, in the bloody scene on the 19th of April last, near Boston—the increase of arbitrary impositions from a wicked and despotic Ministry, and the dread of infligated infurections in the Colonies, are causes sufficient to drive an oppressed people to the aid of arms. We therefore, the subscribers, inhabitants of South-Carolina, holding ourselves bound by that most sacred of all obligations, the duty of good citizens towards an injured country, and thoroughly convinced that under our present distressed circumstances, we shall be justified before God and Man, in resisting force by force, DO unite ourselves, under every tie of religion and honour, and associate, as a band in her defence, against every foe.—Hereby solemnly engaging, that, whenever our Continental or Provincial Councils shall decree it necessary, we will go forth, and be ready to sacrifice our lives and fortunes to secure her freedom and safety. This obligation to continue in full force until a reconciliation shall take place between Great-Britain and America, upon Constitutional Principles, an exact utroque way, evidently decline. And we will hold all those persons inimical to the Liberties of the Colonies, who shall refuse to subscribe to this Association. Subscribed by every Member present, on the 4th day of June, 1775.

Certified by HENRY LAURINS, President.

June 13, one regiment of Horse, and two of foot, are immediately to be raised by order of the Provincial Congress; the militia will be ordered to be on a most respectable footing; and such is the ardour for protection in martial discipline, that many gentlemen of the consequence in this town, as well as the commonalty, regularly turn out to drill both morning and evening; even the boys form themselves into companies, and are really expert in military manœuvres.

The Address of the Provincial Congress of the Colony of New-York.

To his Excellency GEORGE WASHINGTON, Generalissimo of all the Forces raised, and to be raised, in the Confederated Colonies of America.

May it please your Excellency,

Acts, from a regard to the laws and constitution by which he sits on the throne, feel themselves reduced to the unhappy necessity of taking up arms to defend their dearest rights and privileges; while we deplore the calamities of this divided empire, we rejoice in the appointment of a Gentleman, from whose abilities and virtue we are taught to expect both security and peace.

Confiding in you, Sir, and in the worthy Generals, immediately under your command, we have the most flattering hopes of success in the glorious struggle for American Liberty, and the full affluences that, wherever this important contest shall be decided, by the fondest wish of each American soul, an accommodation with our Mother Country, you will cheerfully resign the important deposit committed into your hands, and re-assume the character of our worthy countrymen.

By order,
P. V. B. LIVINGSTON, President.

June 26, 1775. HIS EXCELLENCY'S ANSWER.

The same time that with you, I deplore the unhappy necessity of such an appointment, as that with which I am now honoured, I cannot but feel sentiments of the highest gratitude, for this afflicting influence of affliction and regard.

Any your warmest wishes be realized in the success of America, at this important and interesting period; and be assured, that every exertion of my worthy colleagues and myself, shall be equally extended to the re-establishment of peace and harmony between the Mother Country and these Colonies.—As to the fatal and necessary operations of war, when an injured and oppressed people, as I believe you, in that happy hour, when the shackles of American Liberty, on the most firm and solid foundations, lay enable us to return to our private stations, in the bosom of a free, peaceful, and happy Country.

June 29, 1775. G. WASHINGTON.

NEW-JERSEY.

Extract of a printed half-sheet of the proceedings of the House of Representatives of the colony of New-Jersey, dated at Trenton, the 3d of June 1775.

THE cruel and arbitrary measures of the British Parliament, having made it necessary to arm and discipline the inhabitants, in defence of their rights and freedom, and that persons in whom they can confide should be chosen to command in the militia, it is recommended and advised, that one or more companies, consisting of 30 men (aged from 16 to 50) each, be formed in each Township or Corporation. That each of these companies meet, and choose from among themselves, 1 Captain, 2 Lieutenants, and 1 Ensign; which officers, of each company, shall choose their Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers. That each Captain provide a muster roll, which every one at enlisting is to subscribe, and according as the proper officers shall direct, meet, for improvement in military discipline, the whole companies at least once a month, and at a general muster, or review of the whole regiment, as often as the field officers shall appoint. Each person enlisted, to be equipped as soon as possible with arms, ammunition, &c.

Companies already formed to be continued and completed.

That in the present dangerous state of public affairs, as the usual resources of government appear to be insufficient, a fund extraordinary be provided for the use of the Province, of £, 10,000 proclamation money, to be immediately raised, of which the proportions of the several counties are to be as follows, viz.

Bergen	£ 664 8 0
Eliz.	741 18 0
Middlesex	871 6 0
Somerset	971 2 0
Monmouth	1069 2 0

£, 10,000 0 0

For raising this money, persons to be appointed by the Committees in each town; ad centum, to be rated 1-6th less than by the act of Assembly for settling the quotas of taxes for each county, towns, and lands, and other articles, to be as that act directs.

The persons appointed for this service to meet together on the first Monday in July next, at the places appointed by law for the meeting of assessors, where the rates for the quotas of each county are to be settled and adjusted, and the rates delivered at or before the first of August next, to be collected by, and paid to the persons appointed by Committees of the towns or counties, who are to pay the money to the county Committees, to be by their disposal of according to their discretion, to answer the public exigencies.

The minutes, as true copies, were signed William Patterson, Secretary.

At a Meeting of the General Committee of Observation for the County of Burlington, in the Province of New-Jersey, at the House of John Ingham, in the Township of Mansfield, June 24, 1775.

THE Deputies appointed for the County of Burlington, to attend a Provincial Congress at Trenton, in May last, laid before the Committee an Association, recommended by that Body to the good People of this Province; also certain Rules for regulating the Militia, and a Recommendation to raise the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds for the Use of the Province at this very critical Situation of public Affairs.

The Committee taking the said Papers into Consideration for some Time spent thereon, it was, on Motion, Resolved,

1. That this Committee do heartily approve of said Association, conceiving it to be of the utmost importance towards the future Well-being of this County, that the Magistrates, and other Civil Officers of Government, should be supported in the due Execution of their respective offices, agreeable to the Laws of this Colony, and that the good People of this County, do make use of every Means in their Power to guard against the said Disorders and Confusions, to which the peculiar Circumstances of the Times may expose us.

2. That as Unanimity amongst all Ranks of People, in a virtuous Opposition to the oppressive Measures of the British Ministry and Parliament, is the alone Foundation whereon we can hope, under Providence, for a Deliverance from our present Grievances, it is now earnestly recommended and enjoined by this Committee, to the good People of the County of Burlington, that no Person or Persons, on any Pretence whatsoever, do attempt in the least Degree to injure or molest his or their neighbours, for any supposed Impostion or Misconduct that they may have been guilty of, on Account of the present calamitous Times; that is to say, do not contravene the Laws of the Province; but that no one do exhibit the same Complaint against such Person or Persons before some Members of this Committee, who is hereby required to lay the same before the Chairman, and desire a general Meeting of the Committee, in order that each Party may have a fair Hearing.

3. That any Person or Persons in this County, who shall act contrary to the above Mode of Proceeding, ought to be deemed a Violator of the 11th Article of the [For the Remainder see the fourth Page.]

of wheat, and 12 fols for every quintal of rye, and all such things are to be exempt from paying any duty of freight, or any other fort, in any French port during the above period. The above bounty to be immediately paid by the King's officers in the respective ports in that kingdom.

Intelligence is arrived from Paris, that the King dispatched orders to all his ports to be put in a state of defence immediately. Similar orders have been given by the Count of Spain, which puzzles our most experienced politicians greatly, they not being able even to guess at the designs of their powers.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 24.
Last Thursday a joint address of the Hon. the Council and House of Burgesses was transmitted to the Governor, on board the Governor's vessel, of the following is a copy. It is his Excellency intends to take up his residence at Portsmouth, and that Lady Dunmore, and the rest of his Lordship's family, will follow him for England.

His Excellency the Right Hon. JOHN EARL OF DUNMORE, his Majesty's Lieutenant Governor, General, and Commander in Chief of the colony and dominion of Virginia, and Vice Admiral of the fleet.
The joint ADDRESS of the COUNCIL and HOUSE of BURGESSES.

My Lord,
We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Council and House of Burgesses of Virginia, have received your Lordship's answer to our joint address, by which we represented to your Excellency how very inferior we thought the public arms in the palace since your Lordship's removal from thence, and requested that your Lordship would be pleased to order them to be stored in the public magazine, judging this a repository of much greater security.

You are pleased to tell us, that experience hath shown the inferiority of the magazine, and that as the palace hath hitherto been respected, you thought it improper to give any other orders that the arms belonging to the King, which have for so many years been lodged, may fall into the hands of the enemy, that in that account, be touched without your express permission. This, your Lordship, may be considered, in some sort, as belonging to his Majesty, as the supreme head of this government, and that they are properly under your Lordship's direction, yet we humbly conceive that they were originally provided, and have been preserved for the use of the country in times of emergency.

We would not wish to interfere with your Lordship's authority, of this disposition we presume our former address afforded the strongest testimony; but the reflection that these arms are so much exposed, that they may easily be made the most improper and destructive use of, is to us, extremely alarming.

The palace, my Lord, hath indeed been hitherto respected, but not so much out of regard to the building as the reverence of his Majesty's representative. Had your Lordship thought fit to remove them, we should have had no apprehensions of danger; but, considering these arms as peculiarly exposed to air, ravens, and every rude invasion, we thought it more proper to remove your Lordship's presence cannot now be relied on.

In your Lordship's answer to an address of the House of Burgesses, you are pleased to say, that experience has demonstrated to you that the city of Williamsburg is an improper place for the residence of our Governor, and give it as a reason for not returning the powder, according to your order, that you thought it more proper to see that you could not attend to its preservation, nor depend on its security, if returned to the magazine. We should suppose, my Lord, that your Excellency's attention to the arms would be equally necessary for their security, as you know the palace standing on the edge of the city, and we should, for this reason, imagine it more proper to be placed than in the middle of it; besides, should it be thought necessary, a proper guard might be kept at the magazine, which we did not think so decent to propose for your Lordship's place. Our apprehensions, my Lord, have been not a little increased by consulting the several depositions taken by order of the House of Burgesses, and the removal of the arms from the island to the world from whence the unhappy disturbances in this colony took their rise. We must, my Lord, once more entreat your Excellency to order the arms to be removed to the public magazine.

We must, my Lord, decline representing to you, that the important business of this Assembly hath been much impeded by your Lordship's removal from the place. This I have perceived us of the necessary and necessary to your Lordship, which we conceive the constitution entitles us to. There are several bills of the last importance to this country now ready to be presented to your Excellency for your assent.

We have, hitherto, my Lord, in hopes of preserving the harmony which will ever be subsistent between all the branches of our legislature, submitted to the inconvenience of sending our members twelve miles to wait on your Excellency on board one of his Majesty's ships of war, to present our several addresses; but we think it would be highly improper, and too great a departure from the usual mode of proceeding, to meet your Excellency at any other place than the Capitol, to present such bills as have been agreed to by the Council and House of Burgesses. We must therefore beseech your Excellency to return to us; and as the advanced season of the year requires our presence in our several counties, we hope your Lordship will be pleased to favour us with your speedy and ultimate answer, to which we may certainly know what to depend upon.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S ANSWER.
I have already declared my intentions in regard to the arms in the palace, and I conceive the Council and House of Burgesses are interested in a matter less than not belonging to them. I would wish to be informed who they are, by the terms rule invaders which they have made use of. The disorders in Williamsburg, and other parts of the country, drove me to the necessity of changing my place of residence, and if any inconvenience has arisen to the Assembly on that account I am not chargeable with it, but they have not been deprived of any necessary assistance, and I will do the constitution right as well as an unbalanced power to call the Assembly for the business of, to any place in the colony, exigency may require.

Not having been made acquainted with the whole proceedings of the Assembly, I know of no bills of importance, which, if I were indeed in my person among the people, the Assembly have to present to me, nor whether they be such as I could dissent to.

NEW-YORK, July 3.
Wednesday last General Wooster, with 7 companies of his regiment, and Col. Waterbury, with his regiment complete, both consisting of about 600 men, arrived here from Connecticut; they appear to be a healthy, hearty body of men, and are now encamped about two miles out of town.

Since our last, nine transports with troops, of the second embarkation from Cork, have arrived at Sandy Hook, and agreeable to orders there received, sailed last Friday for Bolton, under convoy of his Majesty's ship of war the Nautilus.

The regiments on board the transports are the 22d, 40th, 44th and 45th.

On the 27th ult. departed this life, ROBERT LIVINGSTON, Esq; at Claremont, in the Manor of Livingston, in the 88th year of his age, after a short illness, attended with little pain. If ready virtue, unfeigned honour, the highest love of religion, and the warmest attachment to his country, merit eulogium—his memory commands respect.

PHILADELPHIA, July 5.
IN ASSEMBLY, June 30, 1775.

The House taking into consideration, that many of the good people of this Province are conscientiously scrupulous of bearing arms, do hereby earnestly recommend to the Associates for the defence of their country, and others, that they bear a tender and brotherly regard towards these classes of their fellow-subjects and countrymen; and to these conscientious people it is also recommended, that they cheerfully assist in proportion to their abilities, such persons with arms and furniture in the service of their country without great injury to themselves and families.

Resolved, That the sum of twenty pounds be paid for every hundred weight of good merchantable salt-petre, that shall be made and manufactured in this province, and that the sum be paid to the Committee within three months from this time, and that the sum of fifteen pounds be paid for every hundred weight of good merchantable salt-petre, that shall be made and manufactured in this province, and delivered to said Committee within three months next following, and so in proportion for any greater or lesser quantity.

Extract from the Journals,
CHARLES MOORE, Clerk of Assembly.

On Friday last the General Assembly of this Province adjourned to Monday the 13th of September next, after passing the following Act.

An Act to amend an Act, intitled, a Supplement to the Act, entitled, "An Act appointing Wardens for the port of Philadelphia, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

An Act for confirming the estate of Daniel Andew in and to certain lands in Amity township, in the county of Berks.

An Act for confirming the estate of the Heirs and Representatives of John Taylor, late of the county of Chester, Practitioner in Physic, deceased, in a certain tract of land in the township of Bradford, in the said county.

Extract of a Letter from an American Gentleman at Paris, dated May 2, 1775, to his Friend in Philadelphia.

"I am, my friend, extremely attentive to our American politics, and to a man freely in friendship to the Colonies, may be matter of doubt; but they profess it to be upon a principle of humanity, and a regard to the natural rights of mankind. They say that the Americans will be either revered or detested by all Europe, and that to their conduct the approaching century is; they will have no middle character; for in proportion as their virtue and perseverance will render them a glorious, their tame submission will make them a despicable people."

Extract of a Letter from London, dated May 10.
"Before you receive this, you will probably have determined the fate of both our British and American Colonies, and the Continental Congress. We have no fears for you, but the infatuation of the Ministry here gives us as much to apprehend as ever. It is still the full persuasion of all the Countries (and I almost think of the greatest part of the nation) that notwithstanding all your former famous and bold preparations, you will submit to any thing rather than contend with us. A very short time will now determine that matter; for there is no appearance of any relaxation here. We wait for the great event with the most anxious and distressing impatience."

We hear that three ancient and infirm persons, his Majesty's subjects, are suffering since the burning of the city, from the British ravages.

The Grace, Capt. McCauld, from this Port, is arrived at Dover.

COMMITTEE CHAMBER, July 3, 1775.

The Committee of the City and Liberties of Philadelphia, having undertaken to erect a Salt-Petre Manufactory, and having appointed Messrs.
