

Poor Emory's Proverbs 2017-2018

Being safe in the hall will not bring a fall. (REH McCallie School Class of 1977)

A mind that is furious should be more patient and curious. (REH McCallie School Class of 1977)

Will you really do your best if you don't think there will be a test? (REH McCallie School Class of 1977)

No smarts. No money. (Austen Harr South Western High School Class of 2022)

Studying everyday keeps the bad grades away. (Hannah Sackett South Western High School Class of 2022)

You don't need to be tall. Just quickly shoot the ball (Tyrese Dimaggio South Western High School Class of 2022)

Words are like glue. They'll stick with you. (Billy Cordts South Western High School Class of 2022)

You can start saving money by not spending it. (Ashlynn Morris South Western High School Class of 2022)

Study for a test with a buddy is the best. (Griffin Scholl South Western High School Class of 2022)

Your mind is like a storm. Make it calm. (Aidan Hicks South Western High School Class of 2022)

When you study. You should have a buddy. (Harrison Wheeler South Western High School Class of 2022)

If you don't farm the hardest, you won't have the best harvest. (Brady Cooke South Western High School Class of 2022)

Studying every day keeps the teachers away. (Caira Whitney South Western High School Class of 2022)

On tests take your time, and you will be fine. (Thomas Eckert South Western High School Class of 2022)

Studying too much is not a thing. (Eric Li South Western High School Class of 2022)

Stay strong if you do something wrong. (Mason Rang South Western High School Class of 2022)

If you work more, you play more. (Elijah Eckert South Western High School Class of 2022)

Poor Emory's Proverbs 2017-2018

If you stay awake, you won't make mistakes. (Tyler Wright South Western High School Class of 2022)

Don't look at the clock or time will stop. (Alex Guy South Western High School Class of 2022)