Sunny and cool today; fair, milder tonight. Cloudy, milder tomorrow. Temp. Range: 46-32; yesterday: 53-37

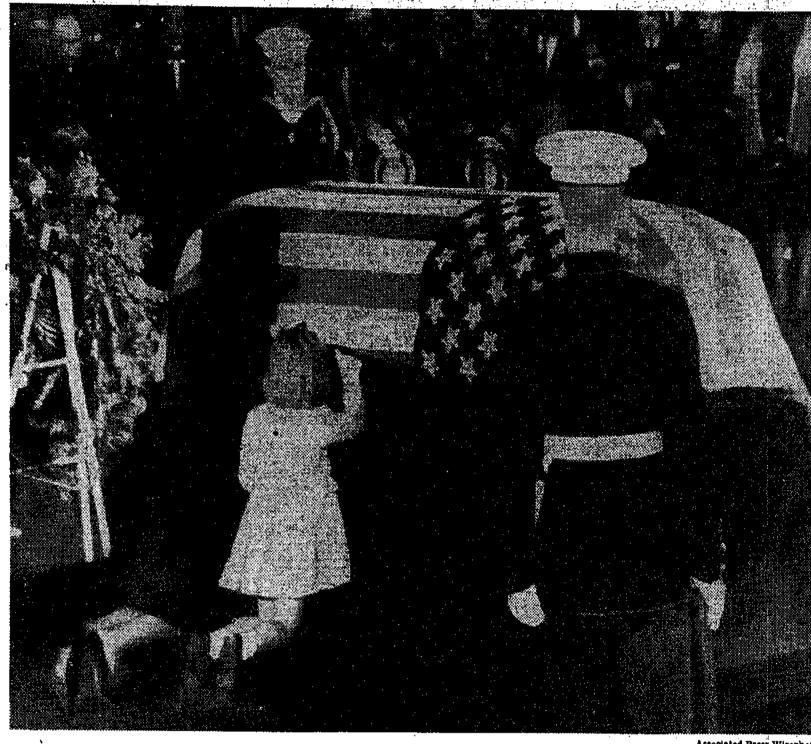

VOL. CXIII.. No. 38,656.

O 1963 by The New York Times Company. Times Square, New York 36, N. Y.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1963.

TEN CENTS

PRESIDENT'S ASSASSIN SHOT TO DEATH IN JAIL CORRIDOR BY A DALLAS CITIZEN; GRIEVING THRONGS VIEW KENNEDY BIER

FAREWELL: Kneeling with her mother at John Fitzgerald Kennedy's coffin in the Capitol, Caroline touches the flag

Mrs. Kennedy Leads Public Mourning JOHNSON AFFIRMS

By MARJORIE HUNTER Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 Mrs. John F. Kennedy, firmly holding the hands of her two doorway, there was an eerie John Jr., wide-eyed and be-Retains Kennedy's Policy bearing the body of her husband the occasional sound of hoofs of ing a tiny flag, he was led away as it left the White House today the restless gray horses that by a military aide.

Her eyes swollen, she moved quietly to the edge of the steps! of the North Portico and paused Capitol. to watch the coffin placed in the caisson by military bearers, but appeared to be on the verge knelt and kissed it. Caroline down and spoke to him.

black suit and black lace man-Kennedy. tilla. John Jr., who will be 3 Still holding the hands of

BUSINESS OF CITY

WILL HALT TODAY

Mayor Says Only Essential

Services Will Be Provided

Changes in events here are listed on Page 9.

By LEONARD INGALLS

dent Kennedy.

maintained, he said.

framed against the black-draped draped in black broadcloth. were to pull the caisson up Later, after the tributes had

Her son, John Jr., tugged at of tears as she and the chil- was by her side. They were re- President Johnson reaffirmed her hand and pointed to a black, dren stepped into a black lim-joined by John Jr. at the door, today the policy objectives of riderless horse, part of the cer-ousine for the slow ride to the Shortly after 9 o'clock to-his predecessor regarding South coats, white anklets and red stared straight ahead as the coffin was placed on the cata-As the three stood there, falque, a simple funeral bier silence. It was broken only by wildered, was restless. Clutch-

Pennsylvania Avenue to the been spoken, Mrs. Kennedy walked slowly to the coffin, Mrs. Kennedy was composed, touched it with her fingertips, emonial procession. She leaned Capitol. In the car, too, were night Mrs. Kennedy returned to Vietnam. He called upon all President and Mrs. Johnson and the Capitol and again kneeled Government agencies to support Mrs. Kennedy wore a simple Attorney General Robert F. before the coffin and kissed it. that policy with full unity of Mrs. Kennedy walked into the purpose.

years old tomorrow, and Caro- her children, Mrs. Kennedy stopped at the rope holding between President Johnson and House to Pennsylvania Avenue. relay, put the tape out over the Washington was showing inday, wore similar pale blue into the Capitol Rotunda. She Continued on Page 2, Column 8

JOHNSON SCORED

Views Called 'Reactionary' lulu last Wednesday. —Taiwan Aid Attacked capacity for hatred and evil China bitterly criticized Presi-members of the White House Without mentioning Mr. Ken- him a supporter of the late yesterday that the city would throughout the day. Only essential city services will be Sunday-noon benediction.

gaged in activities imperative of prayer together, take our to the health, safety and wel-thoughts from the crime that "Those city employes not enfare of our citizens are to be has aroused in these days the called for the maintenance of today would seem to insure the released from duty and their deploration of the whole world," such a policy in a series of during the difficult days of ad-

Proclamation of the day as who is no longer with us and ported the assassination of effit of the experience of key a legal holiday by Governor after comforting those who still Rockefeller in observance of live in mourning and grief, our Mr. Kennedy's funeral permits thoughts show us how much the after it occurred. But they tween the President and Ambanks and other institutions to capacity for hatred and evil Classes at schools and col-great the threat to civil order leges will be suspended. Depart- and peace still is, and how ures in the Kennedy Govern- McNamara, Under Secretary of ment stores and specialty shops great is the need for the grace will be shut. Securities exchanges and commodity mar- Continued on Page 4, Column 7 kets will not operate. Most places of entertainment will be closed. There will be no deliveries of mail and post offices will Books

Special memorial services for Buyers the murdered President have Chess ...

At St. Patrick's Cathedral Financial 27-29, 39-40 Theaters 22-23 revolutionary Government,", it President Johnson laid down a Continued on Page 9, Column 1

Pope Paul Warns That Hate and Evil Imperil Civil Order

ROME, Nov. 24 - Pope Pau VI, alluding to the assassination of President Kennedy, said today that it showed how much still remains in the world."

social activity in the city will of "the crime that has aroused policy." be almost completely suspended in these days the deploration today out of respect for Presi- of the whole world." He said it Kennedy regime," the Chinese illustrated "how great the threat Communist press agency Hsin-dent would leave up to the offi-Mayor Wagner announced to civil order and peace still is." hua said, "Johnson has positive- cials involved how long they continue in full mourning thousands of people gathered in ary policies of the Kennedy Ad- Inevitably some of these offi-"We cannot, at this moment offices closed through Monday," he said.

Mr. Wagner said at City Hall. "After dwelling upon the man yet remains in the world, how

NEWS INDEX

.27, 29 Obituaries19-20 force."39 Real Estate......29 Food14 Weather38 emphasized the President's desire to convey at home and abroad the impression of con-By United Press International TOKYO, Nov. 24-Communist timuity, Mr. Johnson asked all dent Johnson today and termed staff to remain at their jobs. Normal public, business and nedy by name, the Pontiff spoke President Kennedy's "trickery

"Since the emergence of the The Pope was addressing ly supported various reaction-wished to serve him. St. Peter's Square for his usual ministration and participated cials — especially those from in formulating and promoting the universities and foundations such policies.

justment and transition he his speeches." The Chinese Communists re- would continue to have the ben-President Kennedy in a four policy figures. paragraph dispatch eight hours Attending the meeting bebassador Lodge today were made no comment.

Hsinhua said Mr. Johnson Secretary of State Dean Rusk. "was one of the central fig-|Secretary of Defense Robert S. ment and has made frequent State George W. Ball, John A. trips abroad." McCone, director of the Central hat Mr. Johnson believed "the George Bundy, special assistant United States, in making two-to the President for national faced antirevolutionary plots, security affairs, Page must maintain a strong posi- Secretaries Rusk and McNa-.....16 Music 22-23 tion on the basis of strong mara, Ambassador Lodge and Mr. Bundy all took part in the16 Screen22-23 "He also looks toward Cuba Honolulu conference. been scheduled at churches and Crossword 17 Ships and Air....38 with animosity and has called As a result of the meeting,

The Chinese statement added Intelligence Agency, and Mc-

Mourners at Capitol Far Into the Night

Texts of eulogies spoken in Washington, Page 4.

By TOM WICKER Special to The New York Times

Americans filed past John Fitz- House to St. Matthew's Roman gerald Kennedy's bier in the Catholic Cathedral tomorrow. Great Rotunda of the United States Capitol yesterday and early today.

Mr. Kennedy's body lay in States, will be escorted in a the acquaintance of President state in the center of the vast, solemn state procession to Johnson.

shuffle of feet and the quiet ground. voices of policemen urging the people to "keep moving, keep moving right along."

persons had passed the bier.

Yesterday afternoon a crowd estimated at 300,000 lined Pennsylvania and Constitution Avethe caisson bearing the body the caisson bearing the body of the 35th President of the See Oswald Killing United States, slain in the 47th AMS IN VIETNAM year of his life by an assassin's on 2 TV Networks

A Riderless Horse

Behind the calsson, following military tradition, came a riderless bay gelding, with a pair silver stirrups.

of Aiding War on Reds-

Lodge Briefs President

By E. W. KENWORTHY

Special to The New York Times

In another move today that

This was announced by Pierre

Salinger, White House press

Some Expected to Leave

Mr. Salinger said the Presi-

secretary.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24

The horse was Sardar, the viewers. thoroughbred that belongs to Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Kennedy, her two children, President and Mrs. John-Kennedy, rode in the first car of shooting occurred. a 10-car procession that followed the caisson.

Henry Cabot Lodge, United It was a journey Mr. Kennedy network instantly. States Ambassador to South had made formally four times.

on South Vietnam held in Hono-East Capitol Street.

CROWD IS HUSHED World's Leaders to Attend ONE BULLET FIRED Requiem Today in Capital

File Past the Coffin Mrs. Kennedy Will Walk Officials of Nearly 100 Behind the Caisson to Lands in U.S.—They Mass at Cathedral Will Meet Johnson

> By MAX FRANKEL WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 -WASHINGTON, Nov. 24

Mrs. John F. Kennedy, joined by An emperor, a king; a queen, world and national leaders, will princes, presidents, premiers and walk behind the horse-drawn ministers from every continent WASHINGTON, Monday, Nov. caisson that bears her hus-converged on Washington this 25—Thousands of sorrowing band's body from the White evening to pay final tribute to List of leaders expected at

Following a requiem mass, the funeral, Page 6. John Fitzgerald Kennedy, the 35th President of the United President Kennedy and to make stone-floored chamber. Long Arlington National Cemetery to Representing nearly 100 naafter midnight the silent pro- be buried with military honors. tions, the foreign dignitaries men observing the transfer of The gravesite, on a beautiful will include the largest assembly Oswald from the jail to an wept. All were hushed grassy knoll, provides a sweep- of ruling statesmen ever gath- armored truck. As the two lines moved in a ing view of the capital city ered in the United States for large circle around either side and it is itself easily in view any event. of the flag-covered coffin, al-from the Memorial Bridge ap- Their arrival here, through

The state funeral procession overburdened capital. Nonethe-son of a bitch!" will begin at 10:30 A.M. at the less, each visitor received the Capitol, where the closed, flag-protocol deference and police against Ruby by Assistant Dis-By 2:45 A. M. today 115,000 draped coffin of the President protection of more normal trict Attorney William F. Alex-

Continued on Page 6, Column 8 | Continued on Page 6, Column 1

nues to watch the passage of the caiseon hearing the hody

By JACK GOULD

The fatal shooting of Lee H Oswald, who was held as the assassin of President Kennedy, of military boots reversed in the was seen as it occurred yesday by millions of television

The National Broadcasting Company telecast the dramatic

C. B. S. headquarters record-The procession moved at a they were received here over a and ordered the redoubled in-Rotunda on the arm of her hus- This was disclosed by White funeral pace, to the sound of closed circuit. Officials, upon vestigation. band's brother, Robert, who House sources after a meeting muffled drums, from the White seeing the contents of the Dallas

At the Capitol, brief cere-time in 15 years of television of President Kennedy's assassi-The meeting lasted nearly an monies of eulogy were held in around the globe that a real-nation. hour. It was described as being the Rotunda before the admis-life homicide had occurred in devoted to a full review of the sion of the waiting thousands front of live cameras. The clos-Oswald was the assassin. But BY CHINESE REDS devoted to a full review of the sion of the waiting thousands front of live cameras. The clos- Oswald was the assassin. But conclusions reached by partici- who swarmed over the plaza est parallel occurred in October, their concern was over the pub- crete paving, wordlessly clutchpants in a strategy conference and stretched in a long line up 1960, when Inejiro Asanuma, lic impression of the criminal ing his side and writhing with Japanese political leader, was proceedings.

Continued on Page 2, Column 1 | Continued on Page 10, Column 8 | Continued on Page 11, Column 3 | Continued on Page 10, Column 1

Check Death — Handling of Case Worries Capital

By ANTHONY LEWIS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24- single shot. happening live. Less than a President Johnson directed the minute later the Columbia Federal Bureau of Investiga- operator, an ardent admirer of son and Mr. Kennedy's brother, Broadcasting System telecast it tion tonight to look into "every President Kennedy and his famby means of tape, made as the aspect" of the murder of Lee ily, was described as having H. Oswald. He spoke with the director ed the pictures from Dallas as of the F.B.I., J. Edgar Hoover, creasing concern about the en-The incident marked the first tire handling of the aftermath

Officials were convinced that At the conclusion of the cere-knifed on a public stage in Tonight they were consider-

Night-Club Man Who Admired Kennedy Is Oswald's Slayer

By GLADWIN HILL Special to The New York Times

DALLAS, Nov. 24 - President Kennedy's assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, was fatally shot by a Dallas night-club operator today as the police started to move him from the city jail to the county jail.

The shooting occurred in the basement of the municipal building at about 11:20 A.M. central standard time (12:20 P.M. New York time).

The assailant, Jack Rubenstein, known as Jack Ruby,

Millions of viewers saw the shooting on television. most the only sounds were the proach to the national burial the night, virtually over-detective suddenly recognized whelmed an already tense and Ruby and exclaimed: "Jack, you

A murder charge was filed ander. Justice of the Peace Pierce McBride ordered him held without bail.

Detectives Flank Him

Oswald was arrested Friday ifter Mr. Kennedy was shot dead while riding through Dallas in an open car. He was charged with murdering the President and a policeman who was shot a short time later President Orders F. B. I. to while trying to question Oswald.

As the 24-year-old prisoner, flanked by two detectives, stepped onto a basement garage ramp, Ruby thrust a .38-caliber, snub-nose revolver into Oswald's left side and fired a

The 52-year-old night-club been distraught.

[District Attorney Henry Wade said he understood that the police were looking into the possibility that Oswald had been slain to prevent him from talking, The Associated Press reported. Mr. Wade said that so far no connection between Oswald and Ruby had been estab-

Oswald apparently lost con-

Copyright 1963—Dallas Times-Herald and Photographer Bob Jackson, from United Press International Telephoto News Summary and Index, Page 21 Continued on Page 7, Column 6 Continued on Page 5, Column 1 OSWALD IS SHOT: Lee Harvey Oswald cringes as Jack Ruby attacks him at Dallas jail. Policeman is J. R. Leavelle.