

Privacy vs. Security Makeup Work Instructions

Because you were not able to be here during the debate, you might want some "make up work" in order for you to achieve the highest grade.

The following is that makeup work:

Our proposition is: The government has a right to spy on its citizens in order to better protect its citizens.

You have seen, heard, read, and researched the arguments for and against Privacy vs. Security.

I want your personal opinion (it doesn't matter on which side you were placed on the debate) on one of these three questions:

A. Does the government have the right to spy on its citizens in order to better protect its citizens?

B. Do Americans need to sacrifice civil liberties, guaranteed by the Bill of Rights, in order to be safe from terrorism?

C. Is there a compromise, or common sense Privacy vs. Security legislation that you would like to see put into law?

Your answer should be in the five paragraph essay format.

You need to take a position, and back it up with evidence.

You need to use:
